

Clergywomen's Gathering

April 7-9, 2010

Who should attend?

All women in vocational ministry in the United Methodist Church as well as our clergy sisters from other denominations!

How do we live in balance when we are pulled in many directions? The clergywomen's gathering will focus on recapturing our creativity as well as offering a time of renewal, learning, and fellowship with other women in ministry.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Yolanda Villa, District Superintendent of the Heartland Central District, Missouri Conference of the United Methodist Church

WORKSHOPS INCLUDE

Living the Story - explore the relationship between our own stories, biblical narratives, and God's story. Rev. January Kiefer

Soul Strings - feel the stress of your life melt away as we experience the peaceful vibrations of a small harp as it is held against the body. Rojean Loucks

Self-Exploration through Mask Making - experience self-exploration from the inside and out in this low-pressure, fun, collage activity. Julia Fabris McBride

A Still Small Voice: Learning and Teaching Discernment - explore the elements of discernment as well as the impediments to hearing that still small voice. Rev. Kim Ross

SoulCollage - re-connect with your creativity by using imagination, intuition and images to acknowledge and honor the incredible woman that is you. Hazel Smith Hutchinson

EVENT COORDINATORS:

Rev. Billie Blair is an elder in the Kansas West Conference and founder and director of Tallgrass Spiritual Retreat Center.

Rev. Kim Ross is an elder in the Missouri Conference and Spiritual Director at Mount Sequoyah.
